

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN IN CONSTRUCTION

San Diego - Chapter 21

Fraud in the Workplace Seminar

Tuesday, August 11, 2009
6:00 pm to 8:00 pm

CBIZ MHM, LLC
10616 Scripps Summit Court
San Diego, CA 92131

Mayer
Hoffman
McCann P.C.
An Independent CPA Firm

Attention Construction Industry Professionals: Are you aware of the potential fraud happening around you? Do you know how to look for fraud? Do you what steps to take to ensure that fraud never enters your workplace? Join fraud expert, Dana Basney, to help you to understand the importance of early fraud detection and the tools you need to prevent fraud from happening.

Topics to be covered

- How to detect fraud before its too late
- Common employee traits in fraudulent situations
- Steps you can take to prevent fraud

Cost

Members: $20
Non-Members: $25

About the speaker: Dana Basney, MSBA, CPA, ABV, CFF, CIRA, CVA, CFE is a Shareholder in the public accounting firm of Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C., and Director of the Litigation, Due Diligence, Insolvency and Valuation Services in the firm's San Diego office. Dana teaches fraud examination and forensic accounting in the graduate program at the University of San Diego, and has taught advanced accounting and other accounting topics for many years at the University of California San Diego through its extension program.

3

To register, please return this portion along with your check to:
NAWIC #21, Attn: CALPASC: Emily Gardner, 8400 Miramar Rd Ste 200 | San Diego, CA 92126

For questions, please call Emily at (858) 357-9808

No refunds or cancellations after August 7.

Name: _____

Company: _____

Email: _____

Phone Number: _____

Address: _____

City: _____

Zip: _____

_____ $20 NAWIC Member

_____ $25 Non-Member